

NAVAL GOVERNMENT OF GUAM

Executive Order Number 9-46.

TO THE PEOPLE OF GUAM.

Section 541 of the Probate Code of Guam is hereby amended by adding to the said section the following language:

"Where it appears that the only assets of an estate consist of non-income producing real property or real property in the possession of the United States of America or any of its military units for military necessity, the court may, in its discretion, waive the requirements of a bond until such time as the real property shall yield income or payment is made to the administrator for such military possession."

Section 600 of the Probate Code of Guam is hereby amended by adding to the said section the following language:

"The court may in its discretion waive the requirements of this section where it appears that neither the heirs, devisees, legatees or creditors will be prejudiced by such waiver."

Section 608 of the Probate Code of Guam is hereby amended by deleting the word "death of decedent" and substituting in lieu thereof the word "appraisement".

The first sentence of Section 701 of the Probate Code of Guam is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Such notice must be published not less than four weeks and this rule shall be construed to apply to administrators heretofore appointed".

Section 700 of the Probate Code of Guam is hereby amended to read as follows:

"700. Publication of Notice to Creditors - The executor or administrator promptly after letters are issued, must cause to be published in some newspaper published in Guam, if there be one, and upon bulletin boards in the district where the decedent lived a notice to the creditors of the decedent requesting all persons having claims against the decedent to file them, with the necessary vouchers in the office of the chief clerk of courts, or to present them, with the necessary vouchers to the executor or administrator at his residence or place of business, to be specified in the notice within two months after the first publication of the notice.

Given under my hand at Agana, Guam, this 25th day of July
A.D. 1946.

C. A. FOSNALL,
Governor of Guam.

AUTHENTICATED:

I. H. ANDERSON,
Civil Administrator.
